We Come 1

Par Faithless

Album : Forever Faithless: The Greatest Hits [Germany]

All the subtle flavors of my life

Are become bitter seeds

And poisoned leaves

Without you

You represent what's true

I drain the color from the sky

And turn blue

Without you

These arms lack a purpose

Flapping like a humming bird

I'm nervous 'cause

I'm the left eye

You're the right

Would it not be madness to fight

We come 1

In you the song which rights my wrongs

In you the fullness of living

The power to begin again

From right now, in you

(In you, in you, in you, in you...)

We come 1

We come 1

We come 1

We come 1

I'm unafraid

Never never scared

Worries washed

Pressed air

I am the left eye

You're the right

Would it not be madness to fight
