Fools Cry

Par Fancy

Album : The Magic Of Fancy

Once upon a time there was a love

It wasn't meant to be given up

Forever free to shine

Once it found a way in time and space

Turned our darkness into craze

Forever yours and mine

Running wild

Far away

Sailing through the night

Burning love

A star away

Following the light

Fools cry and then they turn around and sigh

For life's a lonely lie

No way to lose what I found and silent rain is falling down -

Whenever fools cry

Whenever fools cry

Love

A secret journey

My crusade

A sane and daring masquerade

I'm holding on to you

Running wild

Far away

Sailing through the night

Burning love

A star away

Following the light

Fools cry and then they turn around and sigh

For life's a lonely lie

No way to lose what I found and silent rain is falling down -

Whenever fools cry

Whenever fools cry

Lifetime's another moment with you

Tender and wild

Then a tear of a fool shatters the crystal - why do fools cry?

Running wild

Far away

Sailing through the night

Burning love

A star away

Following the light

Fools cry and then they turn around and sigh

For life's a lonely lie

No way to lose what I found and silent rain is falling down -

Whenever fools cry

Whenever fools cry
