Lady Of 1000 Sorrows

Par Firewind

Album : Immortals (Japan)

She lives her days just one by one

Decrypting thoughts inside her mind

No right, no wrong, no in-between

She tells all that she knows

So the truth can be exposed

She's a lady of a thousand sorrows

Breaks into trance before my eyes

She's a lady of a thousand sorrows

Tell me how, tell me where, tell me why?

Let me know my fortune

Her words are spoken with a gentle tongue

Declares the doom to unfold

And all it does is to move on

Are you the forgotten son

And are you the chosen one?

She's a lady of a thousand sorrows

Breaks into trance before my eyes

She's a lady of a thousand sorrows

Tell me how, tell me where, tell me why?

...Blackened clouds hanging over me

Should I face the danger to become immortal?

Strapped in iron, roaming endlessly

I will challenge Xerxes and become immortal...
