Lonesome Cowboy Burt (in rehearsal 1969)

Par Frank Zappa

Album : 200 Motels (50th anniversary edition)

Lonesome Cowboy Burt

Don't get my feelings hurt

Come on in this place

And sit on my face

And I'll buy you a beer

Where's my waitress?

Where's that bitch?

Come sit on my face

And I'll buy you a taste

No, sit on my face?

Come on in this place

And sit on my face

And I'll buy you a taste

Where's my waitress?

Come on over here, you bitch!

Where's my waitress?

Lonesome Cowboy Burt

Don't get my feelings hurt

Come in this place

And sit on my face

And I'll buy you a taste

Where's my waitress?

Come on over here, you bitch!

Where's that bitch?

Where's that bitch?

Where's that bitch?

She's too to look around for it

Where's that bitch?

There she is!

The ones I see

Get me so horny

Ruby lips

And teeth like pearls

Pause

Want to love 'em all

Want to love 'em dearly

Want a pretty girl

I'll even pay

I'll buy 'em furs

I'll buy 'em jewelry

I know they like me

Here's what I say

Then he says

I'm Lonesome Cowboy Burt

Speakin' at ya

Come smell my fringy shirt

Reekin' at ya

My cowboy dance

My cowboy pants

My bold advance

On this here waitress

And then yodeling

Then

I'm Lonesome Cowboy Burt

Don't get my feelings hurt

Come on in this place

And sit on my face

And I'll buy you a taste

Where's that waitress?

And then you say

Where's that bitch?

And then it's back to the other part
