Baby's Got Sauce

Par G. Love & Special Sauce

Album : G. Love & Special Sauce

Cooling out cooling out

Waiting for my lady got the special sauce that's why she's my baby my baby

My baby

And of course I'll do anything for her anything she wants

It's sure honey sure

Got a sharp mouth a sharp tongue gimme gimme gimme some

Don't take to that gimme gimme none

You gots to work and deserve it earn it to own it

Once you got it you never ever going to leave it alone don't take wise cracking or

Forgetting never been stood up

She does the stepping

My baby got sauce

Your baby ain't sweet like mine

She got sauce

Your baby ain't sweet like mine

She got sauce

Your baby ain't sweet like mine

Naw, she ain't as sweet

That's some funky lemonade you got going there babe

Is it special for me

Did you make it today

I'll always stop by if you like me to

I'll do anything that you could ever want for me to do

A kiss for some of this

A smile and it's done

Miss I'm your mister

My sister's your sister

My mother's your mother father's your father

It all started when I kissed her I missed her cheek it was love at first sight

Yo, it's better when it started

I ain't broken hearted but baby

I need some time, some time alone with the crew to do the stupid things that we used to do

Upon this she slapped me

With a frying pan

Yo, This is love I'm not gonna leave it

My baby's got sauce

Your baby ain't sweet like mine

She's got sauce

Your baby ain't sweet like mine

My baby's got sauce

Your baby ain't sweet like mine

She ain't as sweet, see?

Baby, what I would do for just one look in my direction

I gave you all I have, but you still act mad, you don't give me no attention.

My baby's got sauce and of course as a matter of cause she does what she

Wants to cause, her, she's the boss

Please don't tell my friends about the situation

Cause like they think I'm on some extended vacation

Cause I don't get out to see my boys anymore

Only time I leave the house is to go to the store for some more

What she wants what she Wants what she wants me for

What could she want this time

I'm all hers

She ain't even mine ain't even mine

Believe me what she do at night I don't know

But, baby, I could guess that it ain't right

She got me waiting comes in late and I'm trying not to raise my voice

Negotiating it

I'm confident that she'll win the argument

Shouldn't even started it I'm broken hearted I can't be parted

I need a taste

So I count my loss

My baby got sauce

Your baby ain't sweet like mine

She got sauce

Your baby ain't sweet like mine

My baby got sauce

Your baby ain't sweet like mine

Naw

She got sauce

She got sauce

She got sauce

Your baby ain't sweet like mine

Ain't so sweet like mine

Ain't so sweet like mine

She ain't so sweet, see?
