Rock n Roll

Par Gannon Fremin & CCREV

Album : Okie Thump

Well, I remember back when I was a kid, before all these habits I can't kick

Well, here to find my face on the Rolling Stone, I tried to talk my mom into reading it

Had a closet full of t-shirts, of all my favorite bands

Sneak them in my backpack, bust them out for all my friends, oh, yeah

Rock and roll may live forever, so I guess I'll never die

I'll spend my afterlife in a cloud, just picking, in the sky

Oh, you know it ain't too far, baby, you can stop on by

It ain't the booze that keeps me up, it's that guitar, late at night, oh, yeah

Late night, a lakeside, a Chevy '85

Now I jam the radio on, a shine in your eyes

We'll turn on some Seager tunes, Greatest Hits

You know that those will be some Night Moves, yeah, I never will forget

Rock and Roll may live forever, so I guess I'll never die

I'll spend my afterlife in a cloud, just picking, in the sky

It ain't the booze that keeps me up, it's that guitar, late at night, oh, yeah

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Rock and Roll may live forever, so I guess I'll never die

I'll spend my afterlife in a cloud, just picking, in the sky

It ain't the booze that keeps me up, it's that guitar, late at night, oh, yeah
