Jagged

Par Gary Numan

Album : 2006 - Jagged

They say I'm unforgiven and I have to pay

Like I'm the demon resurrection

They say that I turn innocence to panic

But I don't care

They say that my obsession is unholy

That I deviate from reason

They say I make you suffer for my sins

I hope you forgive me

Do you want it?

Do you want it?

My desire

I sink to my knees

Head in my hands

So now I'm just a shadow on their bleeding hearts

This is why the righteous never learn

I'm like a dead man hiding in the dark

What do you need?

What do you need?

What have we become?

All that we could be?

Think of this as mercy, a small gift from me

What does a confession ever do

But take my guilt away

Do you want it?

Do you want it?

My desire

I Feel It Fall

I Feel It Fall From Me

I Feel It Fall Down

I Feel It Fall For You

What do you need?

What do you need?
