I don't care

ICIBILLET.COM

About your idle green

Well you can waste your time

All that you want

But you can't fool me

No, your bread I don't wish to eat

Wander back

Through your loamy lea

Where the wake of association

Couldn't steal you away

From reverie

That place still lives

Just underneath

The rind you grew

You gave in too soon

But we're just too young

To throw it in quite yet

That's why we say yeah

We gonna shake em baby

And we don't care

If tomorrow comes tonight

We have cashed our gold

In for something worth our time

And with the load dropped off

We can fly

Right on through

The Wiltonian jive

I don't care

What you say about the rules

It's gonna drop your jaw to see

The things I can do

Soon you'll see you can do them too

Don't waste your days

On the endless race

You know it's not too late

To leave it all behind

And say yeah

We gonna shake em baby

Cnd we don't care if tomorrow comes tonight

We have cashed our gold

In for something worth our time

And with the load dropped off

We can fly

The wiltonian jive
