Never Gonna Come Back

Par Gravediggaz

Album : The Pick, the Sickle and the Shovel

[Grym Reaper (Gatekeeper)]

(Black woman)

She's never gonna come back

(Princess)

She's never gonna come back

(I never find another honor like a track)

Yo, yo

Just knowin she's never gonna come back

I heard the gun clap

I heard the gun clap

She's never gonna come back

(I never find another honor like a track)

[Grym Reaper]

Yo
I saw the woman I love colored in blood
War is hell, I cut shells, was then covered in mud
As four ships hovered above, my heart grieves
But at least she didn't take the mark of the beast
Rest in peace boo
If I blessed then I'ma meet you on the other side
But for now I gotta slide
Through physical mindfields
Miserable is how my mind feels knowin it's long time to heal
Shit is real
Another black mold in a hole
God rest your soul as you travel back home
I'll carry your essence in the thoughts I'm manifestin
As pleasent memories outshine my depression
My physical stress says it's time to rest
Bein chased by the devil tryin to take my breath
Ain't a place on the Earth that you can't get touched
If I get bucked let my melanin rust hit the dust

[Grym Reaper (Gatekeeper)]

She's never gonna come back

(The queen, the princess)

She's never gonna come back

(I never find another honor like a track)

Yo, yo

Just knowin she's never gonna come back

I heard the gun clap

I heard the gun clap

She's never gonna come back

(I never find another honor like a track)

[Gatekeeper]

Yo my boo was hard as corn liquor when we met

Livin jet set, everything connect

Fitted like a seam double stitched

If I had a scratch she knew where to find the itch

Many warm hugs and soapy back rubs

Candlelight's held tight at the hips every night

My soul is cold boo, I can't abandon ship

Cause of false reactions, I miss you with a passion

Your new being represents a universal mean

So rise like cream black queen

Unfortunately you died in my arms

From a stray bullet from afar

That ripped through the car

My dreams are intense with very little sense

My pretense cracked to find an honor like a track boo

I want to follow in pursuit

What I got to do, what I got to do

[Grym Reaper (Gatekeeper)]

She's never gonna come back

(I never find another honor like a track)

She's never gonna come back

(I never find another honor like a track)

Yo, yo, yo

Just knowin she's never gonna come back

I heard the gun clap

I heard the gun clap

She's never gonna come back

(I never find another honor like a track)

She's never gonna come back

(I never find another honor like a track)

She's never gonna come back

Yo, yo, yo

Just knowin she's never gonna come back

When I heard the gun clap

I heard the gun clap

She's never gonna come back

(I never find another honor like a track)

[Grym Reaper]

Another casualty of war and the black-on-black crime saga

More drama for the ghetto

More human bodies ignited by metal

Yo, once they gone they never come back
