Another Girl, Another Planet

Par Greg Kihn

Album : Kihnspicious Taste CD2

I always flirt with death

I'll get ill but I don't care about it

And I can face your threats

And stand up straight and tall and shout about it

I think I'm on another world with you

With you

I'm on another planet with you

And you get under my skin

But I don't find it irritating

You always play to win

But I don't need rehabilitating

Oh no, I think I'm on another world with you

With you

I'm on another planet with you

Hey, another girl, another planet

Another girl, another planet

Another girl, another planet

Another girl, another planet

Hey

Space travel's in my blood

There ain't nothing I can do about it

Long journeys wear me out

But I know I can't live without it

Oh no, I think I'm on another world with you

With you

I'm on another planet with you

Oh no, I think I'm on another world with you

With you

I'm on another planet with you

Yeah, another girl, another planet

Another girl, another planet

Another girl, another planet

Another girl, another planet

Another planet
