Testify

Par Hammerfall

Album : Dominion (Japanese Edition)

Testify, testify

Testify, testify

I'm electric, energetic

Quite high on life's epiphanies

I don't need no two-time weasel

To judge my way based on their bigotry

Rattle the cage, time to taunt the cobras

Tell me, what tongue do you speak

And where is your almighty God in great need

Down on your knees (Testify)

Pray your souls to keep (Testify)

Now the wolf's at the gate (Testify)

To seal your true life and fate (Testify)

Be the prophet, the creator

And master your own universe

False crusaders, God's dictators

Reclaim the fate, our freedom, lift the curse

Rattle the cage, waiting for the rapture

Free me, from your tainted deeds

Infected primeval retarded believes

Down on your knees (Testify)

Pray your souls to keep (Testify)

Now the wolf's at the gate (Testify)

To seal your true life and fate (Testify)

On the first day of man

He invented this sham

Fabrications, forged by evil spiteful twisted minds

Rattle the cage, waiting for the answer

Tell me, now how do you plea

And where is your almighty God in great need

Down on your knees (Testify)

Pray your souls to keep (Testify)

Now the wolf's at the gate (Testify)

To seal your true life and fate (Testify)
