Drifting Too Far from the Shore

Par Hank Williams

Album : Hank Williams The Unreleased Recordings Disc 1

Out on the perilous deep

Where dangers silently creep

And storms so violently sweep

You're drifting to far from the shore

Drifting too far from the shore (from the shore)

You're drifting to far from the shore

Today the tempest rolls high

And clouds overshadow the sky

Sure death is hovering nigh

You're drifting to far from the shore

Why meet a terrible fate

Mercy abundantly waits

Turn back before its to late
