Maybe that I am blind

Maybe that I won't find

The signs within my mind

Maybe that I am blind

Maybe that I am blind

Maybe that I won't find

The signs within my mind

Maybe that I am blind

We'll hope my heart is burning

That's so good I will be learning

The Secrets how to live to take and to give

Temptation's and desire

My world is like a fire

In magic circles

The earth is slowly turning

I'm looking (I'm here looking)

I'm searching (I'm still searching)

I read my horoscope

I'm looking (I'm here looking)

I'm searching (I'm still searching)

I read my horoscope

Maybe that I am blind

Maybe that I won't find

The signs within my mind

There ain't no communication

But I'm trying to make it

There's a world of gloss and I'm trying to break it

With my tiny little hands I'm building castles in the sand

I'm only one of the lost generation

I'm looking (I'm here looking)

I'm searching (I'm still searching)

I read my horoscope

I'm looking (I'm here looking)

I'm searching (I'm still searching)

I read my horoscope

Maybe that I am blind

Maybe that I won't find

The signs within my mind

Maybe that I am blind

I don't know why or if I'm going for

But I look to the sky and I follow my star

I'm looking at the space through my kaleidoscope

And every day I read my horoscope

I'm looking

I'm searching

I read my horoscope

I'm looking (I'm looking)

I'm searching (I'm searching)

I read my horoscope

I'm looking

I'm searching

I read my horoscope

I'm looking (I'm here looking)

I'm searching (I'm still searching)

I read my horoscope

Maybe that I am blind

Maybe that I won't find

The signs within my mind

Maybe that I am blind

Maybe that I won't find

The signs within my mind

Maybe that I am blind

Maybe that I am blind

Maybe that I won't find

The signs within my mind
