Awaiting Evil

Par Hatchet

Album : Fear Beyond Lunacy

Lucifer! His power reigns on all

Satan's army - The ones who burn in hell

Evil legions - obeying their commands

Reign of terror - Die by their hands

Procreate - the wicked to unveil

Full of hate - they cast destruction's spell

Conjurate - ready to deploy

It's too late! They are ready to destroy!

Necro - the dead begin to rise

Hell unleashed - right before your eyes

Evil groans - torment your mind

Every corner - you won't know what you will find

Children scream - eyes filled with tears

You now meet all your darkest fears

Holy terror - army of the damned

Evil torment, rise of the undead

Beating you to the ground your final breath

Awaiting evil

Thirst for blood, reach out for you, face the end

Awaiting evil

Lifeless souls, fall through, the gates of Hell

Awaiting evil

Demons wait, thirsting for, your virgin flesh

Awaiting evil...

Cast from hell, lusting for your flesh

Predator

In the shadows, ready for the kill

Terminate

Legions of the dead lines up ready to destroy

Face the wrath

Sign of evil, the bloodshed fills you with terror

Living dead...

(dual lead: Bailey/Ramos)

(lead: Ramos)

Sweet reveng, your blood is on my mind

Satisfy my need for death and crime

Death will rule, creature of the force

Time is out, the end brings no remorse

Serpents fall, demons take your life

Hell's creation, Satan stands tall

No escape! The evil demon's stride

Face the end! Now join evil's side
