Heartache Every Moment

Par HIM

Album : Acoustic And Rare

From lashes to ashes and from lust to dust

In your sweetest torment I'm lost

And no heaven can help us

Ready, willing and able

To lose it all

For a kiss so fatal and so warm

It's heartache every moment

From the start 'til the end

It's heartache every moment with you

Deeper into our heavenly suffering

Our fragile souls are falling

It's heartache every moment, baby with you

And we sense the danger

But don't want to give up

There's no smile of an angel without the wrath of God

It's heartache every moment

From the start 'til the end

It's heartache every moment with you

Deeper into our heavenly suffering

Our fragile souls are falling

It's heartache every moment, baby with you

My darling, with you

From lashes to ashes and from lust to dust

In your sweetest torment I am lost

And we sense the danger

But don't want to give up

It's heartache every moment

From the start 'til the end

It's heartache every moment with you

Deeper into our heavenly suffering

It's heartache every moment, baby with you, that's right
