The Kiss

Par Hooverphonic

Album : Present Jacky Cane

Some say because it's over

We should be said but that's not true

'Cause death may seem something nasty

But it belongs to me and you

Don't try to avoid your destiny

Accept this kiss with dignity

In this embrace you'll find relief

Get rid of all your grief

Some say because it's over

We should be said but that's not true

'Cause death may seem something nasty

But it belongs to me and you

Don't try to avoid your destiny

Accept this kiss with dignity

In this embrace you'll find relief

Get rid of all your grief

Your grief

Some say because it's over, we should be...

Some say because it's over, we should be...

Some say because it's over, we should be...
