Who Do You Love

Par Ian Hunter

Album : 30th Anniversary Edition

Driving off in the rain and snow

Oh, the jets ain't jumping 'cause the clouds too low

I wanna know

I wanna know

I wanna know

The ice on the window, the highway the sea

Who do you love? Is it him or is it me?

Hey, hey, I wanna know

I called Detroit city on the telephone

(Who do you love?)

(Who do you love?)

The man on the line tell me you ain't home

(Who do you love?)

(Who do you love?)

I wanna know

Who's that voice?

What's hello babe?

There's a deep red glow in the early morning sky

Who do you love? Better make up your mind

Don't wanna buy love

Don't wanna try love

I just want your love babe

Hey!

Alright!

Huh, huh

Well its five in the morning and the place is dead

(Who do you love?)

(Who do you love?)

I'm gonna rest my body on a empty bed

Who do you love?

I gotta know

What's his name baby?

What's your game?

Make up your mind, are you his are you mine?

When you get back, I ask you one more time

Hey hey!

Hey hey!
