The Coming Curse

Par Iced Earth

Album : Box Of The Wicked

I walk the Earth just as they planned

Baptized in fire for my ancient land

The coming curse, your anti-Christ, I am the Watcher's eye

I vindicate and cleanse the Earth of all mankind

For many years, I've walked among you

Through the folds of time and space

Kingdoms fall, leaders die, as I see fit

I devour souls of those that pose a threat

I walk the Earth another day

The wicked one that comes this way

Savior to my own, devil to some

Mankind falls, something wicked comes

I bide my time planning your fate

With bated breath, The Elder wait

The coming curse, your anti-Christ, I am the Watcher's eye

For your crimes on our kind you all will die

I walk the Earth another day

The wicked one that comes this way

Savior to my own, devil to some

Mankind falls, something wicked comes

Forged in the sacred flames

On the sixth day

Of the sixth month

In the sixth hour

I am your anti-Christ, I will destroy mankind

Born of the beast and flames

I will devour, I will divide

Hellfire rages in my eyes

Blood will fall like rain this night

The coming curse, the anti-Christ, I am the Watcher's eye

I vindicate and cleanse the Earth of all mankind

I walk the Earth another day

The wicked one that comes this way

Savior to my own, devil to some

Mankind falls, something wicked comes
