First Time (Goodboys remix)

Par ILLENIUM & Goodboys feat. iann dior

Album : First Time (Goodboys remix)

Hello stranger

I don't know your name but I recognize your energy

A breath taker

You give me déjà vú, this is feeling like a memory

Yeah, your lips look so familiar

And I don't know if this is real or just the liquor

But this feeling is major

It might sound a little strange 'cause

I know that we haven't met, but I know your vibe

Are we skipping a step? 'Cause I really don't mind

It's like you've been in my bed a couple thousand times

Now we're at it again, we're at it again

I know that we haven't met, but I know your vibe

Are we skipping a step? 'Cause I really don't mind

It's like you been in my bed a couple thousand times

Now we're at it again, we're at it again for the very first time

For the very first time

For the very first time

Am I being cliché?

Saying that you're probably from a dream I had

I will put you on replay

Yeah, the TV show I'm marathoning all damn weekend

Babe I can't lie, it kinda creeps me out

How you say what's on my mind, before it leaves my mouth?

Yeah, it's hard for me to explain

I know it probably sounds strange

I know that we haven't met, but I know your vibe

Are we skipping a step? 'Cause I really don't mind

It's like you been in my bed a couple thousand times

Now we're at it again, we're at it again, we're at it again

Again, again, again, again, again, again, again

I know that we haven't met, but I know your vibe

Are we skipping a step? 'Cause I really don't mind

It's like you been in my bed a couple thousand times

Now we're at it again, we're at it again for the very first time

For the very first time

For the very first time
