Jackal

Par Illumenium

Album : Jackal

your words are flinder from a bottle of rum i tried to break with my head just tried to show you that your simple life isn't so easy right now you guess you've lost me from you heart

you only fool yourself

the only case you've lost is your mind

'cause no one ever will

and no one ever comes

against my will, 'cause i want it so much

and no one ever takes and no one ever breaks

my lines from haunting horizon

what i ever do, what i ever did

it just came as karma back to me

what you ever do and what you ever did

it just may come also back to you you said you'll wrack and ruin my life under shower of rust you feel that i'm the stupid fool by my self and nothing compares to you no billie joe can save you this time

the only case you lost was your life

it just may come also back to you,

back to you,

back to you,

back to you,

and i won't be coming back to you,

back to you,

it just may come also back to you,

You...!
