BECAUSE I LET YOU

Par Infected Rain

Album : LIGHTHOUSE

Feeling lost again, I'm feeling down

I'm suffocating while you watch me drown

Like a candle, flickering weak

It's hard to breathe, it's hard to speak

Love! A thorny rose with petals red

It feels so good, it hurts so bad

Love! A thorny rose with petals red

It feels so good, it hurts so bad

Trapped in a cycle of pain profound

You are so deaf to my moanful sound

I had a feeling, I just knew

This is my doing, I just let you

A curse that brings happiness and sorrow

A light that shines today but fades tomorrow

We trust and give our hearts away

To those who ignore our needs everyday

Love! A thorny rose with petals red

It feels so good, it hurts so bad

Love! A thorny rose with petals red

It feels so good, it hurts so bad

Cut me open and see

The raw version of me

Cut me open and see

The raw version of me

Love! A thorny rose with petals red

It feels so good, it hurts so bad

Like a double-ended sword

So much work with no reward

Cut me open and see the shades of blue

A reflection of the pain I've been through

The pain I've been through, see the shades of blue

I had a feeling, I just knew

This is my doing, I just let you

This is my doing, I just let you

Love! A thorny rose with petals red

It feels so good, it hurts so bad

Like a double-ended sword

So much work with no reward

Love! A thorny rose with petals red

It feels so good, it hurts so bad

Like a double-ended sword
