la fleurs du mal

Par Izaya Tiji

Album : la fleurs du mal

Took a lot just to be here, didn't it?
I know you don't feel too good right now
But, we been here before haven't we, haven't we?
And don't lie to my face
I know you better than anybody else
And we made so many mistakes
But we can't let that make us
Baby, your tears fucking up your makeup
It's that real shit, not no makeup
Baby I'm unable, to leave you one last time
It just took way too long, way too long
For me, to give up on you
So what does that mean for us?
Should I text you first?
Should you text me first?
Would you hate me worse?
Like clipped wings on a bird
I would fly away, if I had a chance
But I lost it, like I lost you again
