More Than This (feat. Midnight Cinema)

Par Janji, Jonar Hanak & Levi Lon

Album : Level Up

Walking home in the morning light

You're the one thing running through my mind

Could this be the start of something good

'Cause all i know that is it feels right

You kneeled once and i don't wanna think twice

Could this be the start of something good

'Cause i believe, i believe we were made for more than this (more than this)

And we can dream, we can dream 'cause there's nothing we gonna miss (gonna miss)

So hold me closer wrapped in silence

In your eyes there is only innocence

I believe, i believe we were made for more than this (more than this)

Walking home in the morning light

You're the one thing running through my mind

Could this be the start of something good

'Cause i believe, i believe we were made for more than this (more than this)

And we can dream, we can dream 'cause there's nothing we gonna miss (gonna miss)

So hold me closer wrapped in silence

In your eyes there is only innocence

I believe, i believe we were made for more than this (more than this)

So hold me closer wrapped in silence

In your eyes there is only innocence

I believe, i believe we were made for more than this (more than this)

'Cause i believe, i believe we were made for more than this (more than this)

And we can dream, we can dream

'cause there is nothing we gonna miss (gonna miss)
