I'm Longing For Home

Par Jerry Lee Lewis

Album : Church Sessions

I'm just a pilgrim and a stranger

Through this unfriendly world, I now roam

Seekin' He who has promised salvation

And He who has promised a home

And through the dark veil, I wonder

And I know that I have surely gone astray

Through trouble, trial, darkness

I'll see my Jesus, someday

And I'm longin' for home (longin' for home)

Oh, the sun's goin' down

I long to go where

Sweet rest may be found (sweet rest can be found)

Lord, I'm just about through

With this old house of clay

I long to see Jesus (to see Jesus)

In glory someday (in glory someday)

Yeah, for Jerry's longin' for home (longin' for home)

I can see the sun goin' down

I long to go where

Sweet rest may be found (sweet rest can be found)

Oh, I'm just about through

With this old house of clay

I long to see Jesus (to see Jesus)

In glory someday (in glory someday)

I said, I long to see Jesus (to see Jesus)

In Heaven someday (In glory someday)
