Bully

Par Jonas Brothers(??? ?????) , Joe Jonas(? ???) , Nick Jonas(? ???) , Kevin Jonas(?? ???)

Album : Greetings From Your Hometown

You can be a bully sometimes

You know exactly what I like

In the midnight hour, I'm giving you the power

You took the mundane and you flipped it sideways

It's so exciting, you know that I want it right now

Right now (yeah, yeah)

Your interpretation's got hidden motivation

Like a vicious cycle and I'm your disciple

You're so enticing, you know that I want it right now, right now

You can be a bully sometimes

You know exactly what I like (yeah)

Call the shots and play with my mind

It gets me going every time (yeah)

There's something 'bout the quick reset

The smoke in your silhouette in bed

You can be a bully sometimes

I think I like it, I think I like it (eh-eh-eh)

Loving all your hot takes and you're trolling on me

Like all night and all day, then you leave me lonely

You know that you got it

You know that I want it right now (right now)

You can be a bully sometimes

You know exactly what I like (yeah)

Call the shots and play with my mind

It gets me going every time (oh yeah)

There's something 'bout the quick reset

The smoke in your silhouette (in bed)

You can be a bully sometimes

I think I like it, I think I like it, eh-eh-eh

I can't figure out what's so wrong about

My brain, but I'm caught in the middle, yeah

We don't call it love, it's so dangerous-ous-ous

You can be a bully sometimes (you can be a bully sometimes)

You know exactly what I like, yeah (no, no, no)

Call the shots and play with my mind

It gets me going every time

There's something 'bout the quick reset

The smoke in your silhouette (in bed)

You can be a bully sometimes

I think I like it (oh, yeah)

I think I like it, eh-eh-eh (I think I like it)

You can be a bully sometimes

You can be a bully sometimes

Call the shots and play with my mind (eh-eh-eh)

I think I like it, I think I like it (yeah)

You can be a bully sometimes
