Espace From Reality

Par Judas Priest

Album : Invincible Shield (Deluxe Ed.)

Some days I feel inside that all is lost

I'm in a maze and can't return

Or wake at any cost

I can't explain it when the good turned bad

In free-fall feeling nothing from the emptiness I had

Agony

Escape from reality

Brings you down

Agony

Escape from reality

Brings you down

If I could turn back time I would return

Back to the place and memories I left to crash and burn

What felt right back then I could never see

The foolish ways of my mistakes would come back haunting me

Agony

Escape from reality

Brings you down

Agony

Escape from reality

Brings you down

Agony

Escape from reality

Brings you down

Agony

Escape from reality

Brings you down

Get lost in a psychedelic haze

Levitating to a place that will amaze

Trance-sending in a void of time and space

Hallucinations from another worldly place

Levitating to a place that will amaze

Hallucinations from another worldly place

Still I'm prepared to bring it all to bear

Put out my hand to anyone to take what I'll repair

Agony

Escape from reality

Brings you down

Agony

Escape from reality

Brings you down

Agony

Escape from reality

Brings you down

Escape from reality

Brings you down
