New Night (Live)

Par Katatonia

Album : B-Sides & Live Recordings

The pledge

I've forgotten this time

I am so uncertain

That my heart will go on

My beloved one

If you were here, you'd find

That I'm not feeling well

But I will have to go on

And though summer unwinds now

I have no reason to follow

I have only you

My sun is pale

My heart's old

Why

So quiet this new night?

There's a white cloud

Under my eyelid

Oh, my beloved one

There is swirling dark

Shrouding my freedom

Cold is the undertone

Hold my hand

I'm in the waiting line

Mute I stand

Barren ground

Though summer unwinds now

I have no reason to follow

I have only you

My sun is pale

My heart's old
