Never Let Me Down

Par Kenna

Album : Download to Donate to Haiti

Face to face, Falling grace

What an empty and angry start

Out of place and out of phase

As we tear ourselves apart

And through it all

Inside I bleed for something

To fill the void

Even now at the bottom of this fall

I can hear the sounds

Of your promises to never let me down

Wasting time, aching mind

Never let me put you aside

Thoughts conspire, mental fire

Threatening to burn me alive

And through it all

Inside I bleed for something

To fill the void

I gotta feel again

Even now at the bottom of this fall

I can hear the sounds

Of your promises to never let me down

Shadows that im falling in

Cycles that Im killing

Dying in the process

For better days, for better days

I can hear you calling

If I could breathe you in again

Heaven knows I want it

Even now at the bottom of this fall

I can hear the sounds

Of your promises to never let me down

To never let me down

To never let me down
