God of Thunder

Par Kiss

Album : KISS Symphony? Alive IV

Ok? Y'all can start singing

Alright, set, I can't hear you

Not that damn loud!

You've got something about you

You've got something I need

Daughter of Aphrodite

Hear my words and take heed

I was born on Olympus

To my father a son

I was raised by the demons

Trained to reign as the one

God of thunder

And Rock 'N Roll

The spell you're under

Will slowly rob you of your virgin soul

What? I can't, I don't wanna do it too loud

I'm the Lord of the wastelands

A modern-day man of steel

I gather darkness to please me

And I command you to kneel

Before the

God of thunder

And Rock 'N Roll

The spell you're under

Will slowly rob you of your virgin soul

What? God damnit

And I'm not like that crack addict

I am the Lord of the wastelands

A modern-day man of steel

I gather darkness to please me (Stop, ok man!)

And I command you to kneel

Before the

God of thunder

And Rock 'N Roll

The spell you're under

Will slowly rob you of your virgin soul
