Gemini

Par Leki

Album : Breakin' Out

What shall I do today

What shall I wear

How is the weather out there?

Oh, shall I watch tv, turn on my radio

How to live my life, I don't know.

Today is one of those days

I feel lost, I feel grey

I ain't sad or happy

I just stare and I'm there

I walk to the left

I walk to the right

Go from one end to the other side

Don't know where to put myself I stand up I sit down

Hey little man in the room who are you?

Didn't let you now

So who are you?

He said, Yeah he said, that's when he said what he said in verse two

What shall I do today

What shall I wear

How is the weather out there?

Oh, shall I watch tv, turn on my radio

How to live my life, I don't know.

Hi, I'm little Gemini

People call me I come down the chimney

No chimney I can also just appear that's who I am and how I came here

But why? Didn't light no spliff today

Why my head so blurry

The blunts you puff got nothing to do with the inner call deep inside of you

See rain will come, clouds is near, thunder will drum, sky will clear,

After the storm if you dare look outside, You'll see the sun and it'll shine!

What shall I do today

What shall I wear

How is the weather out there?

Oh, shall I watch tv, turn on my radio

How to live my life, I don't know.

I complicate things I'm complicated

I hate it days like this I'm fading away

What can I say?

It's the same old words I lay

Restless, my mind is a mess yes

Not pretty, way to gritty on the inside

The sun don't shine, though I smile, like I'm fine

Hey Babygirl, don't explode

Let's go from the top and take it slow

You saw what you see little Gemini for you they send me

To say:

Mythic stories written and read

Know thyself is what they said

True indeed, you can't outsmart

Truth sleeps deep in your hart

Shhh...

What shall I do today

What shall I wear

How is the weather out there?

Oh, shall I watch tv, turn on my radio

How to live my life, I don't know.
