Love Came Here

Par Lhasa De Sela

Album : Lhasa

There is no end to this story

No final tragedy or glory

Love came here and never left

Now that my heart is open

It can't be closed or broken

Love came here and never left

Now I'll have to live with loving you forever

Although our days of living life together

Of living life together are over

There's nothing here to throw away

I came to you in light of day

And love came here and never left.
