Animals

Par Lisa Mitchell

Album : Wonder

I lost everything I thought I had,
I lost everything that made me sad,
But nothing is nothing and I know that,

Nothing is nothing and I ain't glad.

Well I'm on the road for the book of truths,
I'm on the search for silver loot,
The maps are drawn all through the skies,
I see the signs in strangers eyes.

And all the animals are gone,

All the animals are gone,

Woah-oh, woah-oh,

You are a good sign,

That now is a good time,

Woah-oh, woah-oh,

You are a good sign,

That now is a good time.

Saddle up your palomino,

Grab it all we'll go to Rio,

Nothing is nothing and I know that,

Nothing is nothing and I ain't glad.

Let the storms all through your clothes,

Let the ink run down your nose,

A whole life for you to see,

Maybe that's how it's supposed to be.

And all the animals are gone,

All the animals are gone,

Woah-oh, woah-oh,

You are a good sign,

That now is a good time,

Woah-oh, woah-oh,

You are a good sign,

That now is a good time.

And all the animals are gone,

All the animals are gone,

Woah-oh, woah-oh,

You are a good sign,

That now is a good time,

Woah-oh, woah-oh,

You are a good sign,

That now is a good time.
