Did You Hide From Saturday Night

Par Littl'ans

Album : Primitive World

oh, come out and be with me leave the others all behind, you're all that's left,

of my sanity, la, la, la, la, la, la,

There's not much room in this city for me to belong, la, la, la, la, la, la, la, la,

It may be big but it's also a pig to get on oh, come out and see the lights

i just want to see, i want to see, what you are wearing tonight

la, la, la, la, la, la,

You said you can't stand to go see a band anymore, la, la, la, la, la, la, la, la,

Especially the ones where the industry comes to adore

No wonder they get pissed i don't blame them a bit, well, you would do too if you had to listen to that, oh,

no, no no,

No, i'm waiting on a miricle then as one comes along

it has to go

it's so typical well, i am waiting in my room please tell me that you're coming soon yeah

Come out and see the lights

I just want to see, i want to see, what you are wearing tonight

Did you see that famous girl over there?

la, la, la, la, la, la, la, la she looked quite normal i thought for a millionair

Well you know that i wouldn't hurt a fly but for our way to live then theirs will have to, oh, no, no, no

No, i didn't mean it to turn out that way i just want to see, i want to see, what you are wearing today, la, la, la, la, la, la
