St. Peter (Deluxe Mix)

Par Lost Frequencies

Album : Lost Frequencies - Less Is More (Deluxe) WEB

I'm riding far away
For nights and days
Going silent they say
I'm running
It's like your voice I hear
Wind in my face
Keeps drying my tears
I am climbing mountains high
No clouds in sight
Say my morning prayers
Please love me again
My heart is aching
In my head, your voice is echoin

St. Peter shaking his head

He's saying "no, no, you're not ready yet"

St. Peter shaking his head

He's saying "no, no, you're not ready yet"

I can't see clear

The memory of you keeps blurring my view

I am lost, nowhere to go

The mountains hide

They're playing tricks on my mind

You're not here by my side

You're further away, my hand far away from you

And I keep trying to forget

The racing youthful mind leaves nothing behind
