Days Turn Blue to Grey

Par Machine Head

Album : Through the Ashes of Empires

Oh, thou have fathered, son and daughter

Doth begat yet raised not bother

Paralyzed your children's lives

Wither vines of family ties

Self-destruction

Makes him function

Crayons and clay

Days turn blue to gray

Days turn blue to gray

Oh, 17 when family begin

Drinking, fighting heroin

Unquenchable addictions call

Responsible to none above all

Self-destruction

Makes him function

Crayons and clay

Days turn blue to gray

Days turn blue to gray

Lest I taste

Its sweet grapes

Glass to tongue

Across it tips

Cross my lips

Swallow his soul

Please, won't you love me?

Please help me see

What did I do?

Did I hurt you?

And now that you're gone

Emptiness lives on

The guilt's all I feel

No closure

Father

Motherfucker

No closure

No

No

No

No

The strings of my heart

You pulled on endlessly

This twine is severed in tragedy

Father

Mother destroyer

Destroy her

Your self-destruction

What made you feel alive

Your self-destruction

Of your children's lives

Lives
