Extreme Occident

Par Madonna

Album : Madame X (Vinyl Edition / Deluxe Edition / Deluxe 2-CD Edition) (CD 1)

I went to the far right

Then I went to the far left

I tried to recover my center of gravity

I guess I'm lost

I had to pay the cost

The thing that hurt me most

Was that I wasn't lost

I came from the Midwest

Then I went to the Far East

I tried to discover, my own identity

I guess I'm lost

I paid a handsome cost

The thing that hurt the most

Was that I wasn't lost

I wasn't lost

No, I wasn't lost

It was a different feeling

A mix of lucidity, and craziness

But I wasn't lost, you believed me

I was right, and I've got the right

To choose my own life

Like a full circle

Life is a circle, life is a circle, life is a circle

Life is a circle, life is a circle, life is a circle

Life is a circle, life is a circle, life is a circle

Aquilo que mais magoa

É que eu não estava perdida

Aquilo que mais magoa

É que eu não estava perdida

I guess I'm lost

I had to pay the cost

The thing that hurt me most

Was that I wasn't lost

I wasn't lost
