A Life's Work pt 3 (A brand new day)

Par Magic Pie

Album : The Suffering Joy

What a joy on this day of May

A child so precious, bright and fair

A welcomed boy, born on Mother's Day

The smell of springing in the air

(Young boys grow fast it's safe to share) It's a brand new day

(Mother's love, daddy's care) In a brand new world

(But, before you learn life's golden rule) It's an all new song

(They kick you off to school) In an all new play

Today

Come youth, come what may
