Sign Of The Hammer

Par Manowar

Album : Classic Metal Essentials

The spell has been broken

The curse has been lifted

Black is the wind on the heels

Of the gifted

Four sworn to vengeance,

See the hate in our eyes

Called by the gods, and given a sign

Onward pounding into glory ride

Sign of the hammer be my guide

Final warning all stand aside

Sign of the hammer it's my time

Pounding, pounding, we are back from the dead

Those who denied us are delivered instead

Into the hands of four sworn to ride

Now the people will triumph and live by the sign
