Thunder in the Sky

Par Manowar

Album : Thunder in the Sky

If I had a name it has long been forgotten

Was I ever born from who am I begotten

I walk into a storm white fire burns me

Death in every stop

A world of pain that learns me

When you see my eyes

The ground is shaking

Your bones are breaking

When you see my eyes

There's thunder in the sky

And soon your gonna die

I will fight the curse

Of the universe that damns me

Am I alive or dead

Among the gods and men

A man beast

Hammer in my hand

Not the son of man burns me

Beyond the cold and pain

Thunder wind and rain learns me

When you see my eyes

The ground is shaking

Your bones are breaking

When you see my eyes

There's thunder in the sky

And soon your gonna die

How the cold wind

Cuts me like a knife

Filled with emptiness

Fighting for my life

Thrust into a world

Of pain and holy rage

So prepare to die

When you see the thunder in the sky

When you see my eyes

The ground is shaking

When you see my eyes

Your bones are breaking

When you see my eyes

There's thunder in the sky

And soon your gonna die

When you see thunder
