He'll Come Back to Me

Par Marianne Faithfull

Album : The Collection

Do you hear what I hear

Or can I have been deceived?

Voices singing, bells are ringing

They say he'll come back to me

Though he's gone, in my sleep

As if he were here with me

He'll be back now, I can tell now

You'll see, he'll come back to me

Once more, once more

Tell me that he's still sure

I know, I know

That he ask me much more

And I'll be here waiting

Until he comes back to me

There's one thing you should know

Just how much I love him so

Though he hurt me

He won't desert me

And now he'll come back to me

Once more, once more

Tell me that he's still sure

I know, I know

That he loves me much more

And I'll be here waiting

Until he comes back to me

There's one thing you should know

Just how much I love him so

Though he hurt me, he won't desert me

So you see, patiently

I'll be waiting here for his call

Voices singing, church bells ringing

To say he's come back to me
