Track 01

Par Marilyn Manson

Album : Holywood

If you can hear this

Don't assume that I'm talking to you

Yesterday everything I thought I believed in died

But today is my birthday

Today is my birthday

I don't need you, I'll say it to myself

It doesn't mean I won't need somebody

Anyone with half a soul

Will hear this and they'll never leave me

If you don't know what forever feels like

I'll show you what it feels like without it

I'll show you what it feels like without it

This time I won't hesitate

To kill to protect what I believe in

This time I won't hesitate

To kill to protect what I believe in

I can get by now

I'm not really dead but I really needed someone to save me

Leaving me alone to die

Is worse than having the guts to kill me

If you don't know what forever feels like

I'll show you what it feels like without it

I'll show you what it feels like without it

This time I won't hesitate

To kill to protect what I believe in

This time I won't hesitate

To kill to protect what I believe in

I'm not letting you win

Won't satisfy me, I'll teach you about loss

I'm not letting you win

Won't satisfy me, I'll teach you about loss

(If you don't know what forever feels like) I'm not letting you win

(I'll show you what it feels like without it) Won't satisfy me, I'll teach you about loss

I'm not letting you win

Won't satisfy me (I'll show you what it feels like without it), I'll teach you about loss

I'm not letting you win

Won't satisfy me, I'll teach you about loss

I'm not letting you win

Won't satisfy me, I'll teach you about loss
