The Little Green Valley

Par Marty Robbins

Album : El Paso

I see a candlelight down in the little green valley
Where Morning Glory vines are twining 'round my door
Oh, how I wish I were there again

Down in the little green valley

That's where my homesick heart will trouble me no more
There's only one thing ever gives me consolation
And that's the thought that I'll be going back someday
And ev'ry night down upon my knees
I pray the Lord to please take me

Back to that little old green valley far away

I hear a mockingbird down in the little green valley
He's singing out a song of welcome just for me
And someone waits by the garden gate

Down in the little green valley

When I get back again, how happy she will be

And by a little babbling brook, once more we'll wander

And in a shady nook, we'll dream the hours away

And I will leave all my cares behind

Go where I know I'll find sunshine

Back to that little old green valley far away
