1: (ne-yo)

You cant lie

All over your face is the evidence of how u feel,

For me girl

Even though your friends tried to tell u that it cant be real

Telling u that i

Only want u body only wanna break u heart

Girl that's a lie

They hating on us from the start

I dont give a damn about they jealousy

Seem like they just dont want to see you happy

Baby girl is me for you and you for me

Dont try to hide it baby let dem see

I know you want me i see it in your eyes

Baby when i touch u feel so good you wanna cry

They hatin' on me and i dont know why

They dont understand the love between you and i

I know you want me imma a mek u fly

Regular me touch you then mi mek u touch the sky

You love my heartbeat can u tell mi why

When u really gonna bring it to di gully boy

2: (mavado)

As we grow in life, that's what we do

You for me and me for you

Girl you are my everything

So i'm buying a pretty ring, fi you

As wi strive, as wi rise, as di flower bloom

A girl for me and a boy for you

Girl you are my everything

From my heart every word i sing to you

They dont know me, baby they dont know you

Many a those who wanna see us through, but i'll forever love you

I know you want me i see it in your eyes

Baby when i touch u feel so good you wanna cry

They hatin' on me and i dont know why

They dont understand the love between you and i

I know you want me imma a mek u fly

Regular me touch you then mi mek u touch the sky

You love my heartbeat can u tell mi why

When u really gonna bring it to di gully boy

Mi baby, i i i why why girl yeah

I know you want me i see it in your eyes

Baby when i touch u feel so good you wanna cry

They hatin' on me and i dont know why

They dont understand the love between you and i

I know you want me imma a mek u fly

Regular me touch you then mi mek u touch the sky

You love my heartbeat can u tell mi why

When u really gonna bring it to di gully boy
