Happening

Par Medina

Album : BRAVO Hits Vol. 79 CD2

I'm running out of patience

But then you say, "It's over baby, wait"

So go on, we both need you to say this to us

You are the only one for me

Every night you stay with her

I pretend it doesn't hurt

'Cause the hardest part of this is wondering what all this is

It's like it's getting worse

She'll always have had you first

You know the hardest part of this is wanting

The two of us to begin

Every single night I wait for you

Every single day you say it's through

You promised me tonight at 2 a.m.

That it's happening

You're gonna tell her what she needs to hear

You gotta be the one to make it clear

You promised me that night at 2 a.m.

That it's happening

That it's happening

That it's happening

That it's happening

I'm so anxious that I'm shaken

We're so close to being together

Boy I have almost given up on this before

But it's worth it, if it is forever

Every night you stay with her

I pretend it doesn't hurt

'Cause the hardest part of this is wondering what all this is

It's like it's getting worse

She'll always have had you first

You know the hardest part of this is wanting

The two of us to begin

Every single night I wait for you

Every single day you say it's through

You promised me tonight at 2 a.m.

That it's happening

You're gonna tell her what she needs to hear

You gotta be the one to make it clear

You promised me tonight at 2 a.m.

That it's happening

That it's happening

That it's happening

That it's happening

Like winter turns to summer

Like night turns into day

I've been missing you like the desert needs the rain

The hardest part of this is wanting

The two of us to begin

Every single night I wait for you

Every single day you say it's through

You promised me tonight at 2 a.m.

That it's happening

You're gonna tell her what she needs to hear

You gotta be the one to make it clear

You promised me that night at 2 a.m.

That it's happening

You've gotta make it happen, baby
