In The Rain

Par Midnight Oil

Album : Sampler 1

Sorry I am for the hurt I caused

Grieving I still do over careless words

As I move freely to a place

The debris I left behind comes back into my day

Out of time disconnected

Plagued by senses sweet desire, out of time

Out of time deluded

I plunged my hand into the mother load of love

In the rain calling out his name, I call, yes I call

In the rain falls on my shame it falls, yes it falls

In the rain

Life picked me up this morning and thrust me to the world

Like a child I? hurtled forward

Dreaming things anew, sights I see sound true

All the places, open faces gracing everything I view

In the rain falls on my shame I call, yes I call

In the rain falling on my shame I call yes, I call

In the rain calling out his name, I fall, yes I fall

In the rain
