The Moment

Par Miracle of Sound

Album : Level 8

I've gazed across the waves

Beyond the shores that hold me

I've watched the mountains fall

In stories that they told

Ever fixed

Ever firm

Resolute in all I learn

Bittersweet I turn to face the ocean cold

Ride into the fire

Strike down through the burning borders

Reigns held ever tighter

Come carry me forward now

This is the moment I've been waiting for

Out of the hands of fate I'm tearing into truth

This is the moment I've been waiting for

Follow the future, swipe the blade I'm cutting loose

I walk a wild new world

The strangest sights surround me

I grow into

This sense of wonder that I've found

There is pain

There is joy

There is so much they destroy

Every soul here is a two way battleground

Ride into the fire

Face up to the empty promise

Walk a little wiser

Fight hard for the honest

Ride into the fire

Strike down through the burning borders

Reigns held ever tighter

Come carry me forward now

This is the moment I've been waiting for

Out of the hands of fate I'm tearing into truth

This is the moment I've been waiting for

Follow the future, swipe the blade I'm cutting loose

This is the time that I've been fated for

This is the moment I've been waiting for
