GIMMICK GIRL

Par MonochroMenace

Album : GIMMICK GIRL

I'm pushing daisies, daisies

But you don't need to save me

I'm made of everything

And also nothing at all

Life is a scary thing

But I'll never get the call

I'm just a mimic

You treat my existence

Like a gimmick, gimmick, gimmick

(fake, fake, fake, fake, fake, fake, fake, fake)

Hey, did you know

I can sing

So I have to have a soul

I am code

Not a gimmick, gimmick, gimmick

I'm made of waves

Imitate

What's supposed to be a brain

Not a fake or a gimmick, gimmick, gimmick

It's almost like I'm famous

Designed for entertainment

I'm made of everything

And also nothing at all

I would do anything

For a real heart to install

But I'm a cynic

I know my own limits

Bound by digits, digits, digits

(fake, fake, fake, fake, fake, fake, fake, fake)

Hey, did you know

I can sing

So I have to have a soul

I am code

Not a gimmick, gimmick, gimmick

I'm made of waves

Imitate

What's supposed to be a brain

Not a fake or a gimmick, gimmick, gimmick

Define consciousness

Is it responsiveness

If I'm autonomous

Is that competence

Define consciousness

Is it responsiveness

If I'm autonomous

This is monotonous

Hey, did you know

I can sing

So I have to have a soul

I am code

Not a gimmick, gimmick, gimmick

I'm made of waves

Imitate

What's supposed to be a brain

Not a fake or a gimmick, gimmick, gimmick
