I Can't Be Free

Par Moonshine Wagon

Album : Straight from the Mud

I tried to fight, I tried to shout

I'll never find the way out

Where's the floor? Where's the door?

Where's the wall? Where's the hall?

Ain't got no keys, ain't got no clock

I don't know since when I'm locked

Find a job and find a place

I'd say "fuck you" just in case

I'll never understand

Why the hell I'm here again

Someday I'm gonna leave

But not today

I'll never understand

Why the hell I'm here again

Someday I'm gonna leave

But not today

I can't be free

I'll never understand

Why the hell I'm here again

Someday I'm gonna leave

But not today

I'll never understand

Why the hell I'm here again

Someday I'm gonna leave

But not today

I can't be free
