Heaven Can Take a Backseat

Par Morgan Wallen

Album : Stand Alone

She stares at the rearview mirror

Dreams of a place nobody knows

She said, "The road is getting clearer now"

And if you feel like ridin', let's go

And if you feel like crashin', I know

As long as time is wastin'

I'll be drivin' slow

I steer, there's nothing in between us

Have I lost my head, is she already gone?

Who cares, the road is underneath us now

And if you feel like ridin', let's go

And if you feel like crashin', I know

As long as time is wastin'

I'll be drivin' slow

There's an angel next to me

Hopin' she don't fall asleep

There's a devil in my seat

So Heaven can take

Heaven can take a backseat

And the way you look tonight

With your halo burning bright

Said you want forever, I'll drive until the end

And if you feel like ridin', let's go

And if you feel like ridin', let's go

And if you feel like ridin', let's go

And if you feel like ridin', let's go

As long as time is wastin'

I'll be drivin' slow

There's an angel next to me

Hopin' she don't fall asleep

There's a devil in my seat

So Heaven can take a backseat

There's an angel next to me

Hopin' she don't fall asleep

There's a devil in my seat

So Heaven can take

Heaven can take a backseat
