Just To Be With You

Par Muddy Waters

Album : Hoochie Coochie Man: The Complete Chess Masters 1952-1958 (Disc 2)

On a ship that's made of paper,

Oh yeah, I will sail the seven seas.

Fight a shark with a toothpick,

Crawled home to you on my knees.

There ain't nothin' baby I wouldn't do, sugar,

Oh yeah baby, just to bring you home with me.

I would rise up with the devil,

Oh yeah, I would breathe smoke and fire.

Or say were I on a tightrope,

Walk a canyon on a wire.

Just to kiss your sweet lips, honey,

Oh yeah baby you know you're my desire.

If a shark bought/bite off my leg,

Oh baby and the sea were turned to sand.

Turn my po' self over darlin'

Crawl home to you on my hands.

There ain't nothin' nothin' I wouldn't do baby,

Oh yeah, oh yeah baby, just to be with you.

Give up all of my money,

Whoa, oh baby, I'd sleep right down on the floor.

Call my mother-in-law honey,

Whoa, oh I'd work for you 'til I got sore.

I would do anything for you baby,

Oh yeah, oh yeah, just to get you home once more.
